DOYLE SCHOLARSHIP INITIATED—A music scholarship in memory of Price "Pop" Doyle, who headed the Department of Music at Murray State University from 1930 to 1957, has been officially initiated and will be awarded for the first time next fall. His widow and his son, Larry Doyle of Cincinnati, Ohio, smile their appreciation as they accept a plaque in recognition of his contributions to the music program on the campus. James Davis (left) of Owensboro, a member of the university board of regents and a music alumnus, presents the plaque signifying the initiation of the scholarship during a reunion dinner of choral and Thoroughbred Marching Band alumni to honor Doyle's memory during the Homecoming Weekend. Also shown (from left) are: LeRoy Offerman of Evansville, chairman of the scholarship fund drive; Dr. Constantine W. Curris, university president; Richard Lewis of Benton, president of the Alumni Association; and Richard W. Farrell, chairman of the Department of Music. More than $8,000 has already been contributed to the fund.

16 Bands To Be In MSU Festival Of Champions

On the adjudication board are such notables in music as Fred Sanford, representing the Drum and Bugle Corps; Mike Summerfield, Shelby, Ohio; Terry Tomlin, Chicago; John Armstrong, Cordoba, Ala.; Chuck Campbell, Winchester; J. Dawson, Nashville; and Jim Fern, timing judge.

Marching Band director at MSU, David Wells, said, "These bands are in this contest because of their contest reputation over the past years."

After a day of preliminary competition, which begins at 8 a. m. on Saturday, finals will be held at 7:30 p. m. and the remaining eight bands will compete for Grand Champion, Reserve Champion, and Kentucky State Champion.

Climaxing the days events will be a performance by the MSU Marching Band and the awards presentation.

Cost Of Raising A Child Varies With Family Income

In Calloway County, under present conditions, how much does it cost to raise a child from birth to age 18?

Most parents have no idea of the overall amount. They don't think of children in terms of dollars and cents. Beyond recalling that at certain stages along the line the costs were very heavy, they have never thought about their total expenditures.

A new analysis of such costs provides some answers. It is based upon studies made by the Department of Agriculture, the Bureau of Labor Statistics and others.

The finding is that the amount spent by parents in rearing a child varies from family to family. In general, however, it is closely related to income. In some families, the outlay in the 18 years is equivalent to as much as 3.6 years of earnings, after taxes. In others, as little as 2.9 years of earnings are so-spent. The average is slightly more than 3 years.

The studies show that where net income is in the $11,000 to $12,000 range, as it has been recently for the average family in Calloway County, the outlay per child is approximately $37,900.

The expenses incurred in the first year can be unusually large. According to the Health Insurance Institute, the average cost in that year for medical and hospital bills, furniture, clothing, medicines and the like runs to $2,194 nationally. Insurance covers some of this in most cases.

Other than that, the greatest demand comes in the period between 13 and 18, when youngsters eat more, require more expensive clothes and more money for recreation.

In most local families, food is a principal item of expense. With prices as they are now, the food bill to age 18 comes to about $13,500.

Another major item is clothing, which amounts to $4,480, on average, allowing for the fact that hand-me-downs are sometimes available.

Beyond these, there are outlays for recreation, medical and personal care, housing, transportation and the like.

Based upon current costs, the total expenditure by Calloway County parents for the 390 or so local youngsters who turn 18 each year, adds up to approximately $14,781,000.

Candidates Seek Votes As Election Day Nears

By DAVE RILEY

Associated Press Writer

President Ford says Jimmy Carter's plans for foreign policy are "potentially dangerous" and warned that the Democratic nominee advocates domestic programs that could "wreck our economy."

With the balloting only a week away, both Ford and Carter are storming through states considered critical to their campaigns.

Carter, who spent the weekend at home in Plains, Ga., was beginning his final campaign trip, starting the day in South Carolina and moving on to highly contested Illinois.

Ford, in a speech prepared for delivery today in Pittsburgh, stressed his experience in Washington. He was critical of Carter for statements Ford said would "concede such nations as Yugoslavia to the Soviet sphere" and promise "total economic warfare against the Arabs in the event of another oil embargo."

Such statements, Ford contended, "invite conflict" and aggression.

Ford said both sides in the Middle East trust the United States, but he warned that Carter's policies could "drive these countries into the arms of the Soviets, threatening the stability of the area and eventually inflicting enormous harm upon the very country that it purports to help, the state of Israel."

Ford said voters must choose between his foreign policy and "venturing into the unknown with a doctrine that is untested, untried and, in my view, potentially dangerous."

On Monday, Ford taped a radio broadcast in which he claimed Carter embraces programs that would cost about $200 billion, "requiring a 50 per cent increase in federal taxes." Ford has claimed in the past that programs named by the Democratic platform, such as health care and various job-creating plans, would cost $100 billion.

Carter has said he would delay new programs until revenues are available and in relation to his plans to balance the federal budget by 1980. Carter also has called for lowering taxes for low- and middle-income Americans by closing loopholes available to those in the highest income brackets.

Both vice presidential candidates, Democratic Sen. Walter Mondale and Republican Sen. Bob Dole, were on the road Monday.

Mondale was in New Jersey where he said Ford has refused to support programs that he said help those who are unable to help themselves. Dole was in Pennsylvania where he said he had reservations about fighting in World War II, which he has characterized as a "Democrat war."

Meanwhile, a Harris poll of 1,503 persons with some college education shows a large switch in sentiment from Carter to Ford among better educated Americans.

In July, the college-educated backed Carter 62-33 per cent, Harris said. Harris said the new count, taken before the third Ford-Carter debate, showed the group backing Ford 51-38 per cent, representing a shift from a 29-point Carter lead to a 13-point deficit.

Harris said those in the sampling felt by 57-32 per cent that Carter ducks issues; a 53-27 per cent majority felt that he no longer seems independent of the party "establishment;" 56-35 per cent felt "uneasy" about the kind of man Carter is, and 46-28 per cent believed that Ford is the man they can best trust.

In Portland, Ore., on Monday, Ford said all 50 states should develop nuclear energy programs, and that the use of nuclear energy is "an important, significant part of our over-all energy program."

Before leaving Portland for a late night flight to the East Coast, Ford said, "We're very optimistic. We think the momentum is going with us and we're going to surprise some people."

While in Portland, Ford had been scheduled to meet with a group of Oregon labor leaders, but none of them showed up. Asked why they hadn't appeared at the appointed time, Ford said, "I understand for various reasons they were not available. You'll have to ask them."

Earlier, Ford told Seattle aerospace workers at a Boeing plant that new noise standards he has ordered for U.S. airliners will create 250,000 jobs in their slumping industry.

Ford said noise restrictions he announced last week will strengthen the aircraft industry by requiring construction of "a fleet of quiet, new airplanes." That, he said, will produce

For several years the local "Friends" group has met annually on a regular basis in the spring. Among business to be discussed will be the change of the meeting date, as called for the constitution and by-laws, from spring to fall with a membership drive to be held after the fall meeting. Individual dues are $1.00; Organizations are $3.00; contributing individuals are $10.00; and lifetime individuals are $25.00. Contributions are tax deductible.

Voting on a new slate of officers and directors will also be included in the business meeting. New officers to be presented for consideration will be Dr. Stan Hendrickson, president; Dr. James Byrn, vice-president; Mrs. Jan Hough, secretary; Johnny Bohannon, treasurer; Mrs. Joanna Sykes; Jack Benton; and Mrs. Lucille Potts as directors. Dave Willis, immediate past president, recently gave up his duties because of ill health. He had been an active member of the "Friends" for approximately twelve years.

For the first time the meeting will be called a "Friends Tea" and a short program will also be presented. Since there is much interest in an expanded Oral History Project for the library, the program will feature an explanatory talk on this project by Dr. James Hammock, historian and author.

Also included on the program will be a slide presentation by some of the students of Murray Middle School, Mrs. Martha Shirley, Mrs. Doralyn Lanier, and Mrs. Kay Peebles have instigated an Oral History project for Middle School students and the slides will illustrate some of the experiences the students have had while conducting their interviews.

"People of Calloway County have contributed much in the way of support and material needs to the library, and it is hoped that they will continue to do so by attending this meeting on October 26," Dr. Hendrickson stated.

Five Are Injured In Auto Accident

Five persons were injured in a two-car accident west of Murray on Highway 94 Sunday afternoon, according to Calloway County Deputy Sheriff Ted Alexander, who investigated the mishap.

Cars driven by Mrs. Wanda Dick and Charles H. Bazzell, Route Two, collided while traveling west on Highway 94, according to reports. The Dick car was reportedly traveling west, turning left into a driveway, and the Bazzell car was following behind, attempting to pass, when the accident occurred, according to Alexander.

Injured were Rella Farmer, Carol Dick, Melissa Cain, and Danna Cain, all passengers in the Dick car. Bazzell was also injured. All were treated and released at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital, according to hospital authorities.

The accident occurred 1.5 miles west of Murray at 4:01 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Larry Doyle Gives

Program At PEO Meeting

Mrs. A. C. LaFollette opened her lovely home to members of Chapter M of P. E. O. Saturday morning, October 23, for a 9 o'clock breakfast and general meeting. Cut flowers and growing plants enhanced the outstanding decor of the hostess' home.

Following the delightful meal, the president, Mrs. Olga Freeman, who also gave the invocation, conducted a short business meeting. Chaplain pro-tem, Mrs. Lewis Bossing, gave the devotional. Mrs. Nate Beale's dimit from Chapter A, Mead, Kansas, was accepted by Chapter M. Also, Mrs. William S. Major's dimit was accepted from Chapter AA, Pittsburg, Pa.

The morning program, "Personal Involvement in the Visual Arts," was given by Mrs. Larry Doyle, a member of the chapter. In her preliminary discussions, the speaker stated, "The gift of life is incredible, wonderful, and should not be passed aside for lack of time."

Mrs. Doyle stated that she had been drawing and painting for 26 years. She then displayed some of her artistic creations and samples of the drawings of son Bryan and daughter Heather.

Two visitors expressed greetings. They were Mrs. Louise Nunnelee (Ted) Snider, from Chapter BO, Clearwater, Fla. and Mrs. Terri Bryan (R. T.), a member of Chapter R, Baldwin, Mo. She now resides in Puryear, Tenn. Mrs. Beale, attending her first chapter meeting in Murray, also spoke briefly.

Members enjoying the occasion, other than those mentioned were: Mesdames Henry McKenzie, Edward Nunnelee, Alfred Lindsey, Jr., Maurice Christopher, Harry M. Sparks, L. J. Horton, Paul W. Sturm, Morgan Sisk, Hugh Oakley, Harlan Hodges and William S. Major.

The annual bazaar, "Stitchin' and Stirrin'" is scheduled for November 1, 7:30 p. m., in the home of Mrs. A. W. Simmons, Jr., with Mrs. Oakley assistant hostess.

Down the Garden Path

By MRS. W. P. WILLIAMS

The thermometer has dropped below forty for the first time this fall and we can expect lower readings from now on. However, I think we will have a few weeks of delightful weather in between cold snaps. The leaves are coming down in handfuls. It does no good to sweep the porch, for in an hour or so, it is littered again. But I don't really mind, especially when I remember what good compost I am going to have with all those leaves raked in a pile. Please do save them. They are the cheapest soil conditioner you can get, at no cost except a little labor.

I hope you have all your bulbs in the ground. That is all except the tulips. They should wait until November. I planted Chionodoxa and Scillas last week and tucked in a few pink Calla lilies. I hope they do well for they do add so much interest to a home garden. I had put some Paper White Narcissus in water a couple of weeks ago and set the bowls in a dark closet. I completely forgot about them and when I remembered to get them out they were up two or three inches and some of the bulbs had not been securely anchored and had turned almost upside down in the rocks. But I managed to straighten them out sufficiently and put more rocks in the bowl. Since bringing them out to the light the tips have turned green and are flourishing. They will make many a cluster of sweet scented blooms in December.

Evergreens can be planted now or moved from one place to another. Those of you who love some of the old-fashioned flowers, like Larkspur, can plant the seed now. Plant them where they are to grow. Mix the seed with a handful of sand, it helps to distribute them more evenly. Cornflower or Bachelors Buttons can also be planted. Pots of the colorful Josephs' Coat or Swedish Ivy make attractive spots during the winter. In fact there are a number of annuals that can be potted and brought inside. My trouble is that I want to bring everything inside and there just isn't enough room.

I read an interesting article in one of the magazines this month on Gourds. They grow in such fantastic shapes and all sorts of interesting things can be made from them. There seems to be no end to the wonderful things nature brings to us.

Murray Open Duplicate Bridge

Club Meets Wednesday Evening

At the regular session of the Murray Open Duplicate Bridge Club on Wednesday night, first place was taken by Ron Cella and John Adams; second by Marcia and Dalton Darnell; and third place went to Wally Ellison and Ann Williams.

One of the newer partnerships is Bert Folsom and Sophie Sagrera. Persons who like to play bridge, may join the group on Wednesday at 7:00 p. m. at Gleason Hall, next to St. Leo's Catholic Church on North 12th Street.

Details of a charity game to be held on November 6 for the arthritis fund will be announced later.

LUNCHEON CANCELLED

The ladies day luncheon, scheduled for Wednesday, October 27, at the Murray Country Club, has been cancelled, according to Mrs. Joe Prince, ladies day luncheon chairman for the club.

FREEZING FOODS

Don't freeze leftover cooked egg white, milk sauces or boiled white potatoes. A pullout-and-save freezer cookbook in the current Family Circle warns that egg whites become tough and rubbery when frozen, milk sauces often curdle and boiled potatoes become mealy. However, do freeze lettuce and green onions. While these vegetables often become limp when frozen, the magazine adds that it's better to freeze them for later use in soups and vegetable medleys than to throw them out.

When you are making a sauce from those tomatoes in the garden, add a little basil or oregano to give it excellent flavor.

Hotel Maids Tired Of Bad Tips

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: About motel maids who never get tipped: I've been a motel maid for more years than I care to remember.

Would you believe a grown man wetting a bed? (No tip.) Or a 10-year-old boy who is a nightly bed-wetter whose mother doesn't have enough sense to carry a rubber sheet? I'll bet she has one on his bed at home. (No tip.)

And how about those men who read dirty books that cost from $2 to $20 each, but are so ashamed of what they read that they stick it under the mattress or behind the ice machine on their way out? (No tip.)

I'll take the polite Japanese people any time. They leave a dollar under their pillow daily, and their rooms are as clean when they leave as when they check in.

HAD IT AT HYATT

DEAR HAD IT: A registered nurse registers a complaint. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: A "motel maid" wrote you recently, begging for tips. She complained about changing bed linen, scrubbing bathrooms, picking up soiled towels and gathering trash thrown near but not in the trash can. She said an extra dollar would be appreciated for the dirty work she has to do.

I won't go into detail about what we hospital nurses have to do. I'll just say that we work up to our knees in the unappetizing byproducts of illness, infection and old age. And do we get tips? Of course not! We get a salary and do the job we're paid to do.

A housekeeper and a nurse's aid are paid salaries comparable to a hotel maid's. I don't know one fellow employee who would not be insulted if a tip were offered. And that goes for the orderlies and the kitchen and cafeteria help, too.

JUST AN R.N.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my 8-year-old daughter who has recently developed a crush on a boy in her class. He is nine years old and has flunked a grade. He walks her to and from school every day.

All she talks about is kissing this boy and writing love notes. She carries these love notes wherever she goes. The boy is very mature for his age, but seems polite and nice. This boy calls her two and three times an evening. Last night she asked me if she could go to the movies with him (matinee). She wants me to drop them off there.

Should I allow her to talk to him so often? And how long should an 8-year-old be allowed to talk to a boy on the phone?

Should I try to discourage this relationship, or will it make her more eager to see him?

I really need your advice, Abby. She is our only child, and I want to raise her right.

CONCERNED MOM

DEAR CONCERNED: I think your daughter is too young to be so preoccupied with one boy. Listen to her attentively, however, and keep the lines of communication open. Never ridicule, belittle or put her down for her feelings. (They're normal, though somewhat premature.) Lay down some ground rules: One call an evening and 10 minutes is long enough.

Put the kibbosh on their going to a matinee together. That's dating, and she's too young to date.

Give your daughter guidelines she can live with. It's important for you to be her friend and confidante during her growing-up years.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (24¢) envelope.

Brother, Sisters Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

The year 1926 was an eventful one for Jeff and Dora Lents of Benton. That year, three of their nine children were married.

On May 9, their son, Harold, married Afton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Washburn.

On Sept. 11, their daughter Hazel, married Glen Edwards, the son of Cratus and Kooper Edwards of Hardin.

On Oct. 2, their daughter, Trixie, married Robert Hiett, the son of Arthur Hiett and Nettie Hiett Landon.

All have lived to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversaries this year.

Harold and Afton Lents, who now reside in Hardin, celebrated at their home with family and friends. Harold, a retired tool and die maker, and Afton, moved back to Hardin in 1971 from Centerline, Mich. Their only child, Harold Pat Lents lives in Centerline. There are 4 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Hazel and Glen Edwards have lived most of their fifty years in Hardin, where they celebrated their golden anniversary with open house. Glen is a retired carpenter. They have two children: Glenna (Mrs. Billy Smith) of Brookport, Ill. and Gayle of Hardin. There are six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

They are the parents of four daughters: Miss Bobby Hiett of Benton, Mrs. Joanne Nichols of Louisville, Mrs. Billie Walston of Geneva, Ill. and Mrs. Gwendolyn Mannweiler of Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. John J. Livesay, Regent of the Captain Wendell Oury Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, right, recently presented a signed and numbered Paul Sawyer print, "Kentucky Turkey Run," to the Kentucky Room at the Calloway County Public Library. Mrs. Margaret Trevathan, center, librarian, received the print on behalf of the library and said "Paul Sawyer was one of Kentucky's finest artists. His work, while dealing with Kentucky subjects, is nationally recognized, and its beauty should be made familiar and dear to every man, woman, and child in Kentucky. Thank you, chapter, your generous gift will be a cherished addition to our Kentucky room." On the left is Maude Nance, vice-regent of the DAR chapter.

Ford, Carter Running Close In Industrial Areas Of Midwest

By DON McLEOD
AP Political Writer

The industrial areas of the upper Midwest are supposed to be some of President Ford's best territory, but his race with Democrat Jimmy Carter is running neck-and-neck in these critical states with a total of 96 electoral votes.

An Associated Press Survey of five Great Lakes states indicates Ford may be running slightly ahead on the aggregate, but taken one state at a time, most of the races are too close to call.

Ford's best hope in this area is his home state of Michigan. There, most polls show him significantly ahead of Carter, although high unemployment and labor support for the Democrat could make it close.

Carter seems strongest in Ohio, benefiting from a combination of labor support in the industrial centers and strength among small farmers in the Appalachian foothills of the state's southeastern region.

Most of the states in the industrial cluster in the upper Midwest have conservative Republican tendencies in presidential elections, but the union influence apparently is more united and working harder than in recent years.

Recent developments that could affect the vote in this region are the resignation of Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, following disclosure of obscene racist remarks he made about blacks, and by Ford's verbal slip in saying the nations of Eastern Europe are not dominated by the Soviet Union—a remark that Ford later admitted was in error.

Butz was widely popular among Midwestern farmers, particularly with larger agribusiness interests, and his loss has been generally lamented by them. At the same time the nature of the Butz incident and Ford's refusal to fire him outright gave the Democrats an unexpected issue with which to exploit support among blacks, who are heavily concentrated in urban areas in these states.

The industrial Midwest also has the largest concentration of American voters of Eastern European ancestry, and many of them have protested Ford's statement concerning Soviet control over countries of that area.

Here are state-by-state conclusions of the AP survey, based on interviews with political and campaign leaders and the latest available polls:

—Michigan: The odds

suggest a favorite son vote for Ford, who was a congressman from Grand Rapids for 25 years. Carter had an early poll showing him ahead; Ford's own have put him ahead. The latest poll by the Detroit News has the President ahead but by a margin recently narrowed from five to three points, with enough margin of error that it could go either way for the state's 21 electoral votes.

Carter's greatest strength is in the industrialized urban areas, principally Detroit, and the difference could lie in labor's aggressive voter turnout effort and any lingering backlash against Ford in the ethnic suburbs.

—Ohio: A Columbus Dispatch poll showed Carter leading Ford 53 to 41, but most observers feel it is closer than that. Cleveland has one of the largest communities of East European ethnics, and farmers in the southeast appear to be identifying with Carter's farm image.

Ford seems to be holding the bigger farmers, despite the loss of Butz. And tradition in Ohio, with 25 electoral votes, also favors an incumbent Republican president.

—Indiana: The advantage appears to be with Ford, since Indiana, with 13 electoral votes, seldom goes Democratic in a presidential election. But both campaigns rate the state a dead heat.

Republican hopes in Indiana are buoyed by the presence on the ballot of popular Gov. Otis R. Bowen, seeking a second term. But this also is Butz' home state, and any irritation at his loss might be felt here first.

—Illinois: A straw poll by the Chicago Sun-Times gave Carter a ten point lead, but disagrees with a Chicago Tribune survey which put Ford ahead. Private polls by the two campaign organizations show it virtually a tie.

In Illinois, with 26 electoral votes, Carter has the important support of Chicago Mayor Richard Daley's machine, and any backlash on the Eastern European issue would help the Democrat in the Chicago area, which is said to have more people of Polish descent than any place outside Warsaw, Poland.

—Wisconsin: A Milwaukee Sentinel poll has Ford ahead by five points, but private polls for both Ford and Carter call it a draw. The state is being hotly contested by two first-rate campaign organizations.

Wisconsin, with 11 electoral votes, is generally regarded as liberal in its politics and seldom votes Republican in a national election. The Republicans normally can count on support by dairy farmers, so they are openly concerned about an unexplainable disaffection among the farmers in this campaign.

A report was given by Mrs. Becky Williams, relative to involvement of the association in F. D. E. A. All members of the association were encouraged to participate in F. D. E. A. meetings.

Mrs. Celia Grogan, treasurer of the association, reported that Southwest and North schools had attained 100 per cent membership of their teachers and that East and Calloway High are nearing the 100 per cent mark.

Membership cards—were issued to all members and plans for an all-woman faculty basketball game were made. The game will be played in the Calloway County High School gym on Monday, Nov. 1. The game is sponsored by help with expenses of the association during the year.

Each of the four schools will organize a women's faculty team, which will be coached by the school coach. The men on the faculty of each school

The "Bumblers" will perform prior to the championship game.

Admission is $1 for all, with pre-schoolers admitted free. The public is invited to the game.

Whaley Attends Joint Meeting

Dr. Peter W. Whaley, associate professor of geology at Murray State University, participated in a recent joint meeting of the Eastern Section of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the Geological Society of Kentucky in Lexington.

Whaley, who joined the faculty at Murray State in 1968, was a judge for papers presented during the three-day meeting. The final day was devoted to a field trip to Eastern Kentucky.

Whaley is the treasurer for the Geological Society of Kentucky.

"almost a quarter of a million useful, productive jobs for Americans."

The work force at Boeing's Seattle plant fell from 101,000 in 1968 to 44,800 today.

Ford indicated concern Monday for the number of voters who are expected to stay away from the polls next Tuesday and a Carter spokesman said the Democratic nominee is planning to appeal in the final days of the campaign to those who now have no plans to vote.

Carter spent a quiet day at home on Monday. He looked over the family peanut business early in the day, then returned home to read and prepare for the start of today's trip.

Although he did not campaigning, Carter headquarters issued a statement in the candidate's name criticizing Ford's record on environmental issues.

The statement said the administrations of Ford and Richard Nixon "have shown no serious concern for our environment."

And, it said, "Too many federal agencies are insensitive to environmental concerns. Agencies which should be serving the public interest are instead serving narrow special interests. They must either be gotten back on the right track or abolished."

"We need a president who is sensitive to environmental concerns and who will work hard for environmental quality. I intend to do that," the Carter statement said.

Carter aide Rex Granum said Carter will avoid personal attacks on Ford during the final week, adding, "What Jimmy Carter is trying to do is to demonstrate to the nation what kind of president he would be, that he is knowledgeable about issues of concern. That will be the subject of the last week."

Mondale was sharply critical of Ford's opposition to social programs, pointing to Ford vetoes of school lunch programs and Medicare programs, his opposition to extending unemployment benefits and his efforts to limit increases in Social Security benefits.

"We know there are limits to what the country can do," Mondale said. "You have to live within a prudent budget." But, he said, "We still have time to be decent and caring for those in our midst who need our help."

Dole, who said during his debate with Mondale that World War II was a "Democrat war," said in Providence, R.I., that he had "some reservations" about the war. He was seriously wounded in action in Italy and his right arm was rendered useless.

Asked if he felt he was fighting for the Democrats during World War II, Dole replied: "It was more than that, but I think probably I had some reservations about it at the time. But once you get involved in that, of course, everybody does it."

Redskins 20, Mother Nature 13 And Cardinals 10 In NFL Play

WASHINGTON (AP) — "We had to play that way to win."

The Redskins gained the advantage early in the fourth quarter when Cardinals' running back Terry Metcalf fumbled and the ball was recovered by Washington defensive end Dennis Johnson on the St. Louis seven with 10:38 remaining.

On the next play, Mike Thomas, the 1975 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, ran to his left behind the blocking of tight end Jean Fugett and running back John Riggins for a touchdown, putting the Redskins ahead 13-10.

On the ensuing series, the Cardinals were forced to punt. Terry Joyce kicked the ball 35 yards, and Eddie Brown took it on the Washington 29, raced up the middle, then cut to the right sideline, scoring on a 71-yard play.

"We just made the play up on the sidelines," said Brown. "We haven't run a return up the middle all year, haven't even practiced it. But their coverage called for it."

Brown picked up blocks from Doug Winslow and Pete Wysocki, but also highstepped out of the reach of Steve Neils, Jerry Latin and Steve Jones before making it into the end zone.

"I was really getting tired," he said. "The last 10 yards were the hardest. My shoes weighed 10 pounds apiece at that point."

The Cardinals still had plenty of time left, despite the 10-point deficit. However, quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted by middle linebacker Harold McInton, ending one series, and Metcalf fumbled for the fourth time in the game at the Redskins one, ending another.

"Even after the punt return, we still figured we were in the game," said Hart. "If we score at the end and then force a mistake, we can take the game into overtime."

Conference Play Problem For Big Eight Coaches

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Big Eight football coaches say they're tired of beating up on each other week after week while lesser teams with cleaner won-loss records rise above them in the national ratings.

But they also agree there's nothing they can do about it.

"I look around the country and see other people's schedules, and who they play," said Barry Switzer, whose Oklahoma team lost Saturday to Oklahoma State and tumbled from fifth to 13th place in the Associated Press poll.

"And it's frustrating to know that every week you play a team that you know you've got to play as hard as you can to even be in the ball game."

The Big Eight has produced four national champions since 1970 and landed five teams in this week's Associated Press top 20 — Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Nebraska and Missouri, all with 2-1 conference records.

"We probably have five teams right now who are as good as any team in the top 10," said Al Onofrio, whose Missouri Tigers whipped Nebraska last Saturday 34-24, rising from 17th to 10th and shoving the previously third-ranked Cornhuskers to ninth.

Missouri beat Southern Cal and Ohio State earlier this year, but the Trojans are rated fourth this week and Buckeyes are eighth.

"Because of the next four weeks several of us are going to be knocked out," Onofrio said. "Somebody has got to lose, and we're going to have some awfully good football teams not rated as high as they should be."

"When I look and see teams that are ranked ahead of Big Eight teams," said Bill Mallory of No. 19 Colorado, "I think, 'There's no way. I just don't think we're given credit for a heck of a league. I'd love to see some of those teams come in and play a Big Eight schedule.'"

"Like Maryland," said Oklahoma State Coach Jim Stanley, whose Cowboys jumped to 16th this week by beating Oklahoma. "Maryland doesn't have a good team on its schedule, and they're rated real high (fifth). They would have a hard time in the Big Eight."

Kansas zoomed to the top 10 after winning its first four nonconference games this year, then suffered successive losses to Oklahoma State and Oklahoma and tumbled out of sight.

LaGorce Having Quite A Season For Racers

By MIKE CLARK
AP Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — For a fellow who didn't even rate a spot in Murray State's football brochure, Hank LaGorce has had quite a season so far.

LaGorce, a freshman, was thrust into the breach early in the year when Murray's regular kicker, Emodi Amagwala, was hampered by an ankle injury.

LaGorce has responded with seven field goals, including six in the Racers' last two games after coming off a leg injury. His kicks of 41, 38 and 37 yards in a 24-20 win over Middle Tennessee two weeks ago tied a school and Ohio Valley Conference record.

He equalled both marks last week in a rain-marred 13-11 loss to East Tennessee. Battling heavy rains and swirling winds, LaGorce hit boots of 27, 40 and 27 yards to stake Murray to a 9-7 lead that the Racers were unable to hold.

"We felt like he could kick the football," said Murray Coach Bill Furgerson, "but we also knew that we had a veteran kicker returning and didn't anticipate using him (LaGorce) at all."

"Then Emodi got hurt, and we had to use him."

Amagwala, a senior from Nigeria who was discovered while playing on Murray's soccer team, hit eight of 14 field goal attempts last season and led the team in scoring with 34 points. It was Amagwala's record of three field goals that LaGorce has tied the last two weeks.

This year, Amagwala has kicked just one extra point and missed his only field goal attempt.

"He's had a bad ankle on his kicking foot — and he's a soccer kicker — and he just hasn't gotten back the swing of it," said Furgerson.

LaGorce leads Murray in scoring this season with 25 points, including seven of 15 fields goals.

"I'd say he's got a chance to hit anything that's snapped from the 30-yard-line (meaning a field goal of about 46 or 47 yards)," said Furgerson. "That's not bad at all."

LaGorce's kicking has been the high point for Murray — as Furgerson says, "that's about all we've done" — during a 3-5 season, and will be especially important Saturday when the Racers travel to Richmond to meet Eastern Kentucky.

"They (Eastern) stated before the season opened there were two games they were really pointing for: the Western game, of course, and Murray was the other one, because we beat them down here last year rather handily (26-7)," Furgerson said. "It sort of upset them, because at that time they were unbeaten in the league and had just beaten Western."

Middle's Mike Moore Still Leads OVC Stats

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Middle Tennessee's Mike Moore has retained his lead in both rushing yardage and scoring in the Ohio Valley Conference.

According to statistics released Monday, Moore has averaged 97.6 yards a game on the ground, although three players with 100 or more carries this season have averaged more per try than he has.

Moore has carried the ball 154 times for the Blue Raiders for 683 yards, an average of 4.4 a try. Eastern Kentucky's Everett Talbert is averaging 4.8; Austin Peay's Waddell Whitehead 4.9 and Morehead's Tony Harris 4.5.

Moore leads the conference in scoring with an average of one touchdown a game, putting him almost a point in front of Talbert and Tennessee Tech's Cecil Fore, each with a 5.1 average.

Morehead's Phil Simms, meanwhile, has taken a giant step toward leadership in the total offense in the OVC.

Simms, a sophomore quarterback from Louisville, picked up 71 yards rushing and 158 passing Saturday to draw within slightly more than 100 yards of OVC leader Mike Robinson of Middle Tennessee.

Middle Tennessee was idle while Simms made his move.

Robinson, still, has an average of 157.1 yards per game on a total of 1,003 yards through the air and 97 on the ground. Simms now has 878 yards passing and 120 on the ground for 142.6 average per game.

Because the OVC headquarters here uses catches per game as the criteria, however, Simms leads the league in passing with an average of 11.3. In fact, Robinson is third with an 8.7 average with Eastern Kentucky's Mike House in between at 9.7.

Racer Cagers Having Open Practices

You aren't going to read here how tough Murray State is going to be in basketball this season.

First of all, you may go and watch practice any time you wish. Murray State head coach Fred Overton usually begins his practice sessions at 3 p. m. in the Fieldhouse. For those who want to watch, go through the tunnel or sometimes, some of the doors around the top of the arena are open.

Last Saturday afternoon, over 100 people turned out to watch an unpublicized scrimmage game. And after this coming Saturday, the Racers will scrimmage each Saturday night at 7 p. m. with the public invited to attend.

Overton will be the guest speaker at a coaching clinic at Tennessee Saturday, thus there will be no scrimmage this weekend.

In the scrimmage Saturday, the Gold team won 110-76 over the Blue team.

Starters for the Gold team included Mike Muff, Darrell Willet, Donnell Wilson, Jimmy Warren and Duncan Hill with Tom Leffler subbing.

For the Blue, Danny Jarrett, John Randall, Zach Blasingame, Lenny Barber and Tommy Wade started with Glenn Jackson subbing.

Muff is a 6-6 offensive machine. He pumped in 39 points to lead the Gold team. He hit 16 of 21 field goal attempts, hitting from both inside and out. He also had 7-7 at the charity stripe.

Wilson, a 6-5 jumping jack who can hit 11-6 on the jumping machine, pumped in 21 points while the 6-6 Willet added 12 and Duncan Hill, a 6-3 freshman guard, scored 11.

Randall, a 6-7 forward who can jump out of the gym too, scored 26 while the 6-11 Jarrett added 12 on 5-7 from the field. Blasingame scored six, Wade 15 and Barber 12.

Leffler came off the bench to score eight while Glenn Jackson had three. Several others played in the contest also.

Senior swingman Grover Woolard did not play. He re-injured a broken foot and will be out of practice for the rest of the week.

"We pressed baseline to baseline for a full 40 minutes," Overton said.

"We played full-speed basketball for 40 minutes and the kids got mad because they wanted to keep on playing when the scrimmage was over."

Overton said he expects his club will have plenty of depth at guard. Warren, a 6-2 junior college transfer from Birmingham, probably has the inside shot at the point position.

"If we can keep these kids in school and don't have to kick anyone off or lose anyone because of grades or injuries, we're going to be interesting," Overton said.

"Our offense doesn't call for much dribbling this year. We'll dribble it to get it down the floor and after that, it's screen and pass."

There are a million "ifs" for Overton. And if things should fall in place, basketball fans in Murray will be packing the old Sports Arena for each home game like they did five or six years ago.

"Again, I encourage people to come out and watch us. We have the kind of kids who really get excited if there are people watching them play," Overton added.

Racer Defensive Star Wempe Having Good Year

Chuck Wempe

Chuck Wempe, Murray State defensive end and the Ohio Valley Conference's defensive player of the week, is described by Coach Bill Furgerson as "a quiet, unassuming person whom you're not aware is around until he gets on a football field, and then everybody knows he's there."

A 6-2, 200 pound senior from Morganfield, Wempe first started for Murray in the last game of his sophomore season. His debut was a spectacular one as he had 5 tackles, 4 assists, and deflected 3 passes against an undefeated Western Kentucky team which edged the Racers 33-27.

He suffered injuries to both knees in the UT-Martin game the next year and had to sit out the rest of the season as well as the next spring practice while recuperating from surgery.

"But he came back stronger than he was before," Coach Furgerson says, "which shows his determination."

Wempe is second on the team in tackles this season with 64, five of which have been sacks of enemy quarterbacks. But the highlight of his season was an interception against Southeast Missouri, which he returned 24 yards for a touchdown—his first points as a Racer.

Last season, Wempe had 93 tackles, third highest on the team. He was named to the pre-season, All-OVC team.

Defensive coach Bill Hina shakes his head in puzzlement when asked what makes Wempe tick. "He's not big, his speed is only ordinary, but he's certainly one of the best, if not the best defensive end we've had since I've been here. Some of his fine play results from his knowledge of the game, but it's a lot more than that. He's just one of those players who seems always to be at the right place at the right time and who likes to hit people."

Wempe graduated from Union County High School in 1972. He started there from his sophomore season on. He went both ways at tackle his sophomore and junior seasons but played offensive tackle and defensive end as a senior.

He occasionally plays linebacker for the Racers but prefers defensive end where he feels more comfortable. Twice this season, he's been Murray defensive player of the week.

He will graduate next spring with a degree in Agri-Business. He's the son of Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Wempe of Morganfield.

Big M, Thoroughbred Clubs Combine Meetings

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

A large crowd of sports fans turned out in Stewart Stadium Monday night for a combined meeting of the Big M and Thoroughbred Clubs.

Cross country coach Bill Cornell and golf coach Buddy Hewitt each presented reviews of their respective seasons while Racer football coach Bill Furgerson discussed the football program at Murray State.

Cornell's cross country team is 3-1 this season in dual meets.

"We really felt good at the beginning of the year. I felt this would be our strongest team ever. The man who ran fourth for us last year was running sixth.

"But then a couple of our kids got mononucleosis and that left me with three good men. But we did wind up with 17 or 18 men as a bunch of guys came out for the team as walk-ons.

"Through pure guts, we now have pretty good fourth and fifth men. We defeated Arkansas State and then had an extremely strong fourth place finish in the Indiana Invitational."

Cornell's biggest thrill of the year came when his Racer harriers won a dual meet over his alma mater, Southern Illinois University.

"I felt there was no way we could beat them. They had beaten us for three straight years and I knew—with their tough course and the talent they usually have that they'd be tough.

"Then this past week, we lost 22-36 to Western Kentucky and I thought we'd lose worse than that. I guarantee you Western will be among the top five teams in the nation and Chris Ridler might well be the national champion this year."

Cornell said if he hadn't have lost some of his best runners, the Racers might be able to beat out East Tennessee and finish second in the conference. Cornell said East Tennessee will be one of the top 10 teams in the nation this year.

The OVC meet will be at Clarksville Nov. 6, the same day the Racer football team plays at Austin Peay and Cornell invited all of the football boosters to attend the cross country meet.

Cornell said he expected Western to win, East Tennessee to take second and the Racers third with Eastern fourth.

"After those four teams, anything can happen," he added.

The veteran Racer coach also said he would be extremely disappointed if Brian Rutter and Martyn Brewer failed to qualify for the NCAA. Golf coach Buddy Hewitt said he had set three goals for his team at the start of the fall season.

"We wanted to finish in the top three at our first tourney, we wanted to finish in the top ten in each tourney we played this fall and we wanted to finish in the top four in the conference next spring."

"We missed the top 10 in one of the five tourneys we played this fall. As far as the fourth in the OVC, of course we'll have to wait for next spring."

"I expected East Tennessee to win the league championship by 30 strokes. After that, Middle looks to be very strong and I'll take Tennessee Tech for third."

"Murray, Austin Peay, Morehead and Western Kentucky all have a chance to finish anywhere from four to seventh," Hewitt added.

Hewitt said he was extremely pleased with the fall play of Kevin Klier. Klier averaged 73.2 in 21 rounds of competition this fall.

"That's a national championship average," Hewitt praised.

Hewitt said another bright spot was the play of newcomer Doug Miller who averaged 74.5 on his 21 rounds of golf.

There was little clowning or joking from head football coach Bill Furgerson who was still visibly upset with his team's 13-11 loss in the rain bowl Saturday night to East Tennessee.

"Even with all the weather problems, we still had our opportunities. And we had several people that played well. Each week that we've won or lost, we've had some outstanding performances."

Two of the outstanding players from Saturday's game were presented to the meeting. Hank Lagorce, who kicked three field goals, was named as offensive player of the week for Murray while Bobby Craig, who had 11 tackles, seven assists and an interception, was selected for defensive honors.

Furgerson had a little mild criticism for his offensive unit.

"How can you expect the defense to give you the ball again and again and yet we can't score any points?" Furgerson asked.

Furgerson said the decision to throw the ball on a first and goal from the East Tennessee four Saturday night was a "good, solid decision."

The Racers were just 16 feet away from scoring and at the time were trailing 13-9 with 1:22 left in the contest. But quarterback Mike Dickens was called for intentional grounding on the play and the Racers wound up back at the Buc 19. The series ended in an interception a few seconds later.

"We had to pass the ball. Our power runner (Tony Franklin) was on the bench with an injury and our blocking had been something considerably less than successful. On the pass, the blocking in front was good,

Dickens just got hit from the blind side.

"It was a tight end delay play over the middle. And I do not think the 15-yard penalty was justified. The rule says the ball has to be thrown in the direction of a receiver. It doesn't say the ball has to be right to him. Dickens was hit as soon as he released the ball and that's why the pass fell so short and they called intentional grounding," Furgerson blasted at the call.

Murray plays at Eastern Kentucky Saturday. To put it quite simply, the Colonels will be out to literally kick Murray all over the field, since the loss to Murray last year eliminated Eastern from the championship.

Besides having that as one problem, Furgerson has others. Defensive standout Eddie McFarland will be out, Mike Dickens will probably be out, Tony Franklin is a question mark and several other players are beginning to show signs of the long season.

"We'll take a bus full of players and gear and we'll show up on the field to play football. Four of the last five years we've beaten Eastern and the other year we played them tough."

"Our programs is not down, we've had a temporary setback but we're going to get it done," Furgerson added.

The next meeting of the Thoroughbred Club will be November 15 and following that meeting, Coach Fred Overton's Racer cagers will make their debut against the Olympic team from Venezuela.

MEDAL PLAY WINNERS: Although Beverly Parker, winner of the championship flight, was at the University of Alabama playing with the women's golf team there, these winners of the annual medal play tournament at the Murray Country Club were on hand last week to receive their awards: From the left: Betty Stewart, first flight; Jane Fitch, second flight; and Cindy Ashby, third flight.

Lady Golfers At Murray Club Are Presented With Honors

Top honors for the ladies' 1976 golf season at the Murray Country Club have gone to Beverly Parker and Carol Hibbard. They along with eight others were honored and received their trophies Thursday night at the ladies' annual awards dinner.

Beverly, a member of the University of Alabama women's golf team, was not present to receive her trophy for winning the championship flight in the annual medal play tournament.

Mrs. Hibbard was honored as the winner of the annual match play tournament's championship flight, defeating Miss Parker 2 and 1 and Betty Lowry by the same score "with birdies on the last two holes."

Betty Stewart was the winner of the first flight in the medal play tournament, and also received on behalf of her flight the Charles Sexton Memorial Trophy, a traveling award. Next year, it will be awarded to the winner of the second flight, which this year was won by Jane Fitch.

Cindy Ashby, a relatively newcomer to the club, won the third flight in both the medal and match play tournaments, and was the only double winner honored. In the match play tournament, she won by defeating Eva Morris and Clara Ingram.

Sue Brown was the first flight winner in the match play tournament, defeating: Fairia Alexander, 6 and 5; Betty Hinton on a forfeit; Madeline Lamb, 5 and 4; and Toni Hopson, 3 and 2.

Winner of the second flight in match play was Diane Villanova. Her wins were over: Mary Frances Bell, 1 up by taking the 18th hole; Chris Graham, 6 and 5; and Edith Garrison, 3 and 2.

Low putts awards in the flights involved went to: Mrs. Hibbard in the championship flight; Inus Orr in the first flight; and Mrs. Garrison in the third flight.

Co-chairman for this year's activities were Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. Hopson, who will serve again next year along with Sue Costello.

May Need Surgery

TORONTO (AP) — Defenseman Borje Salming of the Toronto Maple Leafs might require surgery at the end of the National Hockey League season in order to correct a sinus condition.

Coach Red Kelly said Monday that Salming has received treatment for a sinus problem for the last two weeks. Salming complained of dizziness last Thursday night in Montreal and had to leave the Leafs' lineup.

"He's got a recurring sinus condition and will probably need an operation when the season ends," Kelly said.

Farmed Out

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Flyers of the National Hockey League have sent rookie right winger John Paddock to their American Hockey League farm team at Springfield, Mass.

A team spokesman said Monday that the 22-year-old Paddock was sent to the minors in order to get more playing time. He played in five games for the Flyers.

Decision Almost Cost This Young Sailor His Own Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — When he left the University of Southern California business school, Bruce Collins was faced with a choice: work for an accounting firm or sail yachts to tropical Pacific isles.

He chose sunshine and brisk winds on blue seas rather than fluorescent lights in some air-conditioned office building. It was a decision which nearly cost him his life.

On Sept. 27, a storm splintered and sank the 42-foot ketch Spirit about 900 miles west of San Francisco. But Collins, hired as navigator and skipper, climbed into a canopied life raft with Camilla Arthur, 21, and Jim Ahola, 25. They quickly became separated from another raft carrying Durel Miller, 28, and Nancy Perry, 21.

Miller and Miss Perry were rescued 24 days later. But, at the whim of winds and currents, Collins' orange raft drifted for 28 days, until a Coast Guard search plane spotted it Sunday.

Collins was the only person on board. Malnourished, dehydrated and covered with sores, he told rescuers that his two companions were dead and buried at sea. But he refused to make any public statements about the ordeal until he could talk to their families.

He is scheduled to arrive here late today aboard a Coast Guard cutter.

Collins' 16-month mariner's adventure started as a long vacation. He kept his career options open. An accounting firm had agreed to hold a job for him for six months while he sailed to Hawaii and New Zealand.

Later, he talked the firm into an extension so he could touch more exotic ports, like Fiji and Bali, and get the miles under his belt to become a master seaman. He crewed for yacht owners on his island-hopping journey, but now and then found it necessary to hop a plane.

Meanwhile, he wrote his parents infrequent but long letters, trying to convey his passion for sailing while easing their disappointment.

Sometimes he needed money from his savings, or would ask his parents in Walnut Creek, Calif., to cash some of his inherited stocks. It wasn't much, but enough to keep wind in his sails and a little meat on his lanky 6-foot-3 frame.

"Around September, we got a long six-page letter from him saying that he loved sailing so much and wanted to make a lifetime of it," his mother, Kathryn Collins, recalled in an interview. "His last letter, from Honolulu in September, said he wanted to decide where he wanted his life to go."

Collins was spotted after a search of some 30,000 square miles. The pilot of the Coast Guard search plane, Lt. James Skelton, said, "I want to find out what gave him the will to live."

"I knew if anybody would make it, Bruce would make it," said his friend and longtime sailing buddy, Henry Coles, 24, of Saratoga, Calif. "He always got the job done and was never one to quit. I sent a letter to his parents saying that he would be okay, and he was."

Look at your attitude toward aging.

Get off your rocker. Don't take old age sitting down.
